

COMEDYSPORTZ[®]

MANCHESTER

ALL AGES, ALL IMPROVISED COMEDY AT THE FRINGE THIS YEAR
Maggie's Chamber @ The Free Sisters (Venue 272) 4th-13th August
5.45pm (50 Mins) FREE

ComedySportz returns to The Edinburgh Fringe for another week of laugh filled matches. The show has two teams battling it out for laughs as players create quick-witted sketches, scenes and songs from whatever suggestions are thrown at them by the audience. It's an all ages, all improvised show that's fast, feel good and always unpredictably funny. There's a referee on hand to steer the entertainment, call any fouls and help the audience decide the winner. This is the group's 8th year at the Fringe.

ComedySportz Manchester is part of ComedySportz Worldwide and represents each year at the Edinburgh Festival. The group will be joined by other worldwide players from across America throughout their run, including ComedySportz founder Dick Chudnow.

"ComedySportz is a 32 year old organisation and we're proud to be it's representatives in the world's biggest arts festival," says ComedySportz player Sean Mason. "The show is all about families, our global family and our audience."

"Being part of the Laughing Horse Free Festival is part of our mission statement too." agrees team manager Braine Edge. "We want to provide entertainment that anyone can enjoy without breaking the budget so that people can afford to see as many shows as possible."

"We always get quite a loyal following in Edinburgh with people returning throughout the week as every show will be different," adds Sean. Appearing for one week only this is a show you can't afford to miss!
