Dead Duck Productions presents...

Present and Correct

'Present and Correct' return for their fourth consecutive year at the Edinburgh Fringe! Have you ever wondered what life is like for the stripper inside a cake? Ever wanted an owl that corrects grammatical mistakes? Or wanted to learn to drive on a space-hopper? Maybe you just want to see someone rant about a plastic kettle on Antiques Roadshow; 'Present and Correct' has got it all!

Featuring a wide range of hilarious and energetic sketches, which are sharp, original and have all been written within the last year, 'Present and Correct' is a show full of new and imaginative sketch comedy. This will be the fourth instalment of the series at the Edinburgh Fringe after the success of 'Present and Correct' (2013), 'Present and Correct: Now Recruiting' (2014), and 'Present and Correct: Fan Club' (2015), and we are delighted to perform an exciting new piece of comedy theatre as part of the series. We can't wait to have audiences laughing again!

The enthusiasm of our actors and our memorable writing has been praised by audience members, with audiences from previous years returning to see us again! We are becoming a regular hit at the Edinburgh Fringe and our production team is more dedicated and determined than ever before. Each year we see an improvement in our show, and our talented and committed team have been working all year to ensure it is the highest standard it has ever been.

So get ready for original, energetic, and downright hilarious sketches from 'Present and Correct', as we bring you a masterpiece of sketch comedy – it's not to be missed!
