

Russell Arathoon presents

The Curious Incidents of the Gay in the Night-Time

"I'm not one for conspiracy theories but all the bad things that have happened over the last few years, can be traced back to one single event, when Madonna fell down the stairs at the Brit awards"

From an unlikely move from Manchester to Chelsea, massive nights out with big fat Sarah, the untimely death of his pet cactus & life with with a gluten free Shi-tzu, Russell Arathoon brings us his hilarious debut stand up show.

What was actually in big fat Sarah's colon cleansing smoothie?,
Would you share a gram of coke with Theresa May?
Did Mary Berry used to work in Holland & Barrett?

Fresh from a four night run in Brighton & a sell out run In Manchester, The Curious Incidents of the Gay in the Night-Time is rollercoaster hour of adult humour & wicked punchlines.

"Absolutely brilliant, literally laughed for the whole hour, I would definitely recommend you see this show" - RUSSELL TOVEY

"One of the best new comedians on the scene right now, go see this show whilst you can" - LIVE AT THE PALACE

"Just the right amount of belly chuckles & tongue in cheek smut, I loved it" - CHRIS YOUNG, DIRECTOR OF HASTINGS COMEDY FESTIVAL

This is a very fast paced & very funny show. The unexpected punch lines, the witty put downs & often naughty anecdotes will have the audience in hysterics

"A dog is for life of course & not just for the first six months of a homosexual relationship"
