Offers To Remedy A Heartless World At The Edinburgh Festival Fringe with...

SONGS FOR A NEW WORLD ORDER

*"If musical comedies are your thing, Songs For A New World Order will surely delight you as it did me."
– (A-), MyEntertainmentWorld.com*

"Anesti Danelis delivers the funny with a hefty side of heart. Not only were his songs expertly composed, his lyrics were freaking hilarious." – MooneyOnTheatre.com

Songs for a New World Order is an acoustic romp of witty and ridiculous comedic songs that offer to remedy a heartless world by shining a light on the mundane struggles threatening our humanity. From the deep dark secrets we suppress (shhh) to the slow walkers we can't surpass (why can't they f*!@&ing move?!) these genre-hopping songs will pluck at your heartstrings and leave you with a spring in your step. With a style that sits deadpanned between Flight of the Conchords and Tim Minchin, "Danelis is goofily charming, and self-deprecatingly hilarious as he works his way through a series of comedic songs." – MyEntertainmentWorld.com

*"Anesti is blessed with a lovely voice, really good timing, and an excellent deadpan."
– CultMontreal.com*

Anesti Danelis is a Toronto-based musical and sketch comedian who has charmed sold-out audiences at comedy fests and fringes across North America with his blend of smart and silly, optimistic yet dark, humour. Official selections include: Montreal Sketchfest (2017), Chicago Sketchfest (2017, 2018), Fresh Notes Fest (2018). He has studied at Bad Dog Theatre and The Second City, for which he understudied their House Company. His work has been featured on Global TV and the viral platform 9GAG and he continues to make web shorts for his social pages.

"If you know a friend that loves Flight of the Conchords and maybe has a smart sense of humour, tell them to check out Songs For A New World Order. They will LOVE you for it." – MooneyOnTheatre.com
